10 Oct 2026

Working on a sermon today for a nursing home and it reminded me of how we should live as Christians. We need to be able to love one another. Then look out for one another and rejoice and enjoy! Christ reminds us of this.

1 John 1:3-4 New International Version

3 We proclaim to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. 4 We write this to make our[a] joy complete.

Rejoyce with one another to be closer to God. In fellowship with Him and each other. The complete our joy. But how should we do this. Too often people think it is just one hour on Sundays and then done. God asked us to share our lives together. **

Acts 2:46 New International Version

46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts,

We do not just do it in church but in the homes. Some say my home is a mess can not meet there. Then in the coffee shops, parks, or other events together. This is not just about church but our God is a God who wants all of our lives. He wants to be part of all of our lives. To make it complete and prepare us for heaven. This is where we rejoice together forever.

John 15:11 New International Version

[11] I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

Remember this life is so shout compared to forever in heaven.

Waiting for our forever,

Chaplain Tony