Life is full of changes. As a matter of fact I once heard a phrase: The one constant in life is change. By Heraclitus of Ephesus. That is the one thing we can count on to remain the same is change. We are going though it each day and sometimes not even seeing it. We are too close and it is so slow. Our loved ones see it the most when they are away for a time and come to see us and saw wow you have changed! They see it all at once and hopefully for the good.

Acts 2:44-47 New International Version

44 All the believers were together and had everything in common.
45 They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.
46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts.
They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people.
And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

I am not advocating communal living but what I am advocating is helping one another. In life sometimes we serve others and sometimes we are being served. We need to remember that life works in these seasons. Keep working to show your love to each other.

Galatians 6:2 New International Version

2 Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

We carry each other's burdens in life. As we do this we make their life easier and forward the kingdom of God. We need to work on this each day. Remembering that our forever is not this world, this word is only temporary. We have a forever promise.

John 18:36 New International Version

[36] Jesus said, "My kingdom is not of this world. If it were, my servants would fight to prevent my arrest by the Jewish leaders. But now my kingdom is from another place."

I am waiting for my forever!
