In this life we are here to make relationships. Meet new friends, learn and grow how to work together and learn all things including about God. There is more to life then this but Jesus want us to learn relationships.

1 Corinthians 13:4-7 New International Version

[4] Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. [5] It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. [6] Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. [7] It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

God describes this love in our relationships and how we should act around one another. What we should say and more importantly what we should do. Actions do speak louder than words. But, what extent should we go to for those we love?

John 15:13 New International Version

[13] Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

So we can do nothing greater than this. To lay down one's life for another. Where did we get this example from? Jesus showed us this and did so on the cross. We can do nothing more than His example. How can we build up to this what should we do?

2 Peter 1:5-7 New International Version

[5] For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; [6] and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; [7] and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love.

Keep Working to strive higher and learn more. Love one another.

Following in His love,

Chaplain Tony
