The hardest thing is when we lose our loved one. We are sorry to see them go, wish they were here, but as Christians it isn't just a good bye it is a see you later.

John 16:22 New Living Translation

22 So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy.

When we wish they were here, we forget that they are in a better place. They don't have the ailments that they once had anymore. No more Alzheimer's, wheelchairs, even glasses and hearing aids. We are given our new spiritual body in heaven.

Revelation 21:4 New International Version

4 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death'[a] or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

This is what we have to look forward to. And to top it off this is forever! We get to spend this time with God and Rejoyce with Him! We don't have to worry. We get so mad when we wait 5 minutes for a doctor or 15 for a movie but time no longer matters in heaven.

2 Peter 3:8 New International Version

[8] But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

Or Whist John writes in revelations:

Revelation 22:5 New International Version

[5] There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

With Him forever,

Chaplain Tony
