I love when you start to get to know fellow Christians. Ones that are not under your care or even in your radar. You get to know them because they know you. You are the chaplain coming into the building for their roommates. They start to ask you to pray for them and you do. Why?

Romans 10:12-13 New International Version

[12] For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, [13] for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."[a]

We call on him because we are all made by the same God. We relay on him no matter our background or upbringing. We need to rejoice in Him. We do this to get to know each other and more importantly God. We need to call on Him for help.

Hebrews 4:16 New International Version

[16] Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

We seek His mercy and grace so we can live by His laws. Why? To get ready for one day when we live under those laws in Heaven with Him. We will be with our brothers and sisters in unity and peace forever. For now, we find comfort in the future.

Isaiah 40:31 New International Version

[31] but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not be faint.

We hope in the lord for our future. While we think the time here on earth is a long time even if it is 100 years it is nothing compared to heaven. Ger ready for that day. Find that peace here on earth while you are with your brothers and sisters.

Rejoicing in Him each day,

Chaplain Tony
