Life is always changing. I joke often that the one constant in life is change. We need to hang on tight and enjoy the ride. While we are enjoying it, we need to remember to be able to live God's plan:

Isaiah 55:8-9

New International Version

⁸“For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
neither are your ways my ways,”
declares the Lord.

⁹“As the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways
and my thoughts than your thoughts.

It is God's plan. But a good one at that. He has a perfect plan for us. Laid out from the beginning of time:

Ephesians 1:11

New International Version

¹¹In him we were also chosen,^[a] having been predestined according to the plan of him who works out everything in conformity with the purpose of his will,

God's plan isn't to force us into what he wants us to do but rather because he knows us so well. Just like when my kids were little and if one stole a cookie, I already knew who did it. Not because I forced them to but because I know them. God is the same way. He wants us to confess and turn away from our sin and learn from it.

Jeremiah 29:11

New International Version

¹¹For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Rejoyce in His plan enjoy the moment.
