As we go through life we are constantly learning things. As a child we get done with something and think it is a master piece. I remember when I was in high school and found an art project I made in elementary school. I was so proud of it. Looking at it with my high school eyes it was horrible. Looked nothing like it should have. Yet. I was so proud of it. This is how God sees us. Looking down at us, he sees our handiwork and looking at his and no compression. Not to brag but as a proud parent. Think about it we paint on a canvas a poor copy of the sunset. God painted the sunset, every part of it. The mountains, sun, sky, the birds flying through it everything. In the Bible is says:

Isaiah 14:24

New International Version

²⁴ The Lord Almighty has sworn,

“Surely, as I have planned, so it will be,
and as I have purposed, so it will happen.

God’s plan is absolute, Sovern and establish from the beginning of time. We must remember this, We do copies of his work He created it without something to copy from:

Genesis 1:1-5

New International Version

The Beginning

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ² Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

³ And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. ⁴ God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light “day,” and the darkness he called “night.” And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

He created something out of nothing. Dark formless empty. He spoke it into existence, We have Him to thank for everything even then small things we overlook like the birds, trees and sunsets. It is all from him.

Always thankful,
