As humans we are under constant change and worries. I sometimes joke the only constant in life is change (quoted by Heraclitus). We must deal with changes always. This means that we really cannot count on other humans. They can and will let us down. Even the best meaning, they are not perfect. God is, we need to count on him:

Psalm 130:5-6

New Living Translation

<sup>5</sup> I am counting on the Lord;
yes, I am counting on him.
I have put my hope in his word.

<sup>6</sup> I long for the Lord
more than sentries long for the dawn,
yes, more than sentries long for the dawn.

Some translations like the Niv says waiting on the Lord but either way we put our trust in Him. We need to remember he has a plan for us and it will not fail. For us to think we can mess up God's plan in any way is over rate ourselves. His plan is perfect, not always as quick as we want but perfect. Remember Moses, after his 40 years learning all, he could from the Egyptian schools he ventured out himself to "save" his people. Ended up killing an Egyptian and going on the run. But this was Also God's plan. Forty years of the school of hard knocks. Learning things he could not in school. Where the watering holes were, how to lead a flock, how to care for the people.

God's plan is perfect:

Jeremiah 29:11

New International Version

<sup>11</sup> For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.
