We should always be grateful. Too often we want more and this idea comes from the adversary. There is nothing wrong with bettering oneself, but to never have an end to this want becomes a problem. The Bible say:

Matthew 6:24

New International Version

<sup>24</sup> “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

When we look and pray for more stuff an always need more this goes and blocks God. When we pray, we pray to Jesus to provide. Not pray for more.

Hebrews 12:1-2

New International Version

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us, <sup>2</sup> fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

We need to keep affix on Jesus he wants good things for us but we need to as Him for the good things. We ask the wrong person and strings may be attached. The devil attaches these things this is why we have to expression sell your soul to the devil. He wants something in return for what he gives you. Crist does not.

Just like your earthly father he wants to build that re;ationship to get to know you. To have you call yourself one of his own:

Ephesians 3:17

New International Version

<sup>17</sup> so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love,

As we grow up with Him we become like Him,
