As we try to follow God we need to remember none of us will get it 100% right. If we did, we would not need Jesus. When we get to heaven, we will laugh at all the things we got wrong. The one thing we can count on is:

Romans 3:23

New International Version

²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

This is every one of us. When we take the time to argue over our differences the only one who benefits is the adversary. He waits for us to separate each of us then tries to pick us off one at a time.

Catholics vs Luthern or fill in the blank with your denomination. We need to unite yes, we can debate the Bible but not let it separate us. In the Bible Jesus covers it:

Mark 9:38-40

New International Version

Whoever Is Not Against Us Is for Us

³⁸ “Teacher,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in your name and we told him to stop, because he was not one of us.”

³⁹ “Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “For no one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me, ⁴⁰ for whoever is not against us is for us.

Jesus could have said this today to all our denominations. He did not create them, we humans did. Now we are separated we fight one another. This is from the devil only. When we fight each other, we ignore the devil. We don't want to do this he rejoices in it. We need to unite for we are of one body:

1 Corinthians 12:12-14

New International Version

Unity and Diversity in the Body

¹² Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For we were all baptized by^[a] one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴ Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

Remember this, unity is the key.

United in Christ,
