Stepping out of your comfort zone must happen to grow. The Bible agrees with this:

Romans 5:3-4

New International Version

³ Not only so, but we^[a] also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope.

To grow we must have the pains of the work. Suffering must happen to produce perseverance. To get to character to then be in hope. We need to put in the work to get the gain. We cannot expect to hold our hand out and get everything we want. Now the path is not going to be the same for all. But for all will require work.

Hebrews 12:11

New International Version

¹¹ No discipline seems pleasant at the time, but painful. Later on, however, it produces a harvest of righteousness and peace for those who have been trained by it.

So, we must go through it like everyone else but in our own way:

1 Corinthians 12:12-14 Niv

¹² Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³ For we were all baptized by^[e] one Spirit so as to form one body—whether Jews or Gentiles, slave or free—and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴ Even so the body is not made up of one part but of many.

Tomorrow we will like at the many jobs of te same body
