When people face the end of life there are lots of regrets. People letting down the family, failing the dying or thinking of only themselves. We need to remember that this would not surprise Jesus. He warned us of it.

Romans 3:23

New International Version

²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Every last one of us. So, when the family gets mad when one of their own lets them down and their dying loved one it can get heated. Caring for the family, we need to first listen then give them time to talk it out. When they do we remind them of the above Bible verse. Reminding the grieving that Jesus gave it all. God did this even though we are imperfect. He did this even though we would not believe. He did this even though we turn our back on Him.

Romans 8:32

New International Version

³² He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

We need to thank God for this mercy. He found a way to save us even though we don't deserve it. We sin and still He loves. Remember this when you go through your day and remember to bring comfort to your fellow humans.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

New International Version

Praise to the God of All Comfort

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, ⁴ who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

Loving Him each day,
