

11 July 2026

We must remember part of our time on this earth is making connections. I firmly believe God is a God of connections. Kept sending the same archangel to visit Mary, Joseph, and the parents of John the Baptist. The same one. We need to learn from this and make connections here on earth.

Hebrews 10:24-25

New International Version

<sup>24</sup> And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup> not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

We make these connections with one another, but God first made the connection with us. Being there for us, leading guiding us protecting us. Allowing us to grow:

John 15:1-5

New International Version

The Vine and the Branches

15 “I am the true vine, and my Father is the gardener. <sup>2</sup> He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes<sup>[a]</sup> so that it will be even more fruitful. <sup>3</sup> You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup> Remain in me, as I also remain in you. No branch can bear fruit by itself; it must remain in the vine. Neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in me.

<sup>5</sup>“I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.

This is the connection he makes with us, let us share it with others and be connected to them.
