When visiting people in hospice you often find humans depressed about missing a part of their life. Usually, it revolves around their freedom. Freedom to move about or drive a car but things they took for granted in the past and now miss. When we do these things in the past we often forget the relay on Him and now we have to. To bring people around us to take care of us and our personal needs or to get us around. Do not forget that we should always relay on Him for everything:

Proverbs 3:5-6

New International Version

⁵ Trust in the Lord with all your heart
and lean not on your own understanding;
⁶ in all your ways submit to him,
and he will make your paths straight.^[a]

We may not realize this but this independent bring us further away from God. Being dependence brings us closer. One of the things that is not the same for the world. The world teaches you to depend on no one and do it yourself.

2 Corinthians 12:9-10

New International Version

⁹ But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ’s power may rest on me. ¹⁰ That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

When we are weak, we show His strength. Remember that we show the gifts coming from God. Not from our own strength. Allow Him to shine through you.

John 14:27

New International Version

²⁷ Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Relay on His comfort the peace that only comes from Christ,
