Sometimes when you are helping others, even though it is work it is rewarding so you are recharging your batteries. Ever think why is this? Harder work than work yet you feel recharged?

Mark 10:45

New International Version

⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

This is the example Jesus gave us so in a way we are wired by God this way. This is what He wants from us to help one another. Not to live a life of all for me but how can I help others. As Christians this is how we need to operate.

Galatians 5:13

New International Version

Life by the Spirit

¹³ You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh^[a]; rather, serve one another humbly in love.

This is how we are supposed to live to serve one another. Jesus said for us to do this. As a matter of fact, he went one step further and said when you do you are actually serving him. He is the poor, hungry needy.

Matthew 25:35-40

New International Version

³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, ³⁶ I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

³⁷ "Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? ³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

⁴⁰ "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

We need to serve other as Jesus did so we can live by his example.
