There are more people on this world that need help than you can help. Too many as a matter of fact. We can only do so much Christ warned us of the abundant need:

Matthew 9:35-38

New International Version

The Workers Are Few

³⁵ Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. ³⁶ When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. ³⁸ Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”

Too many for us to handle so don't shrink the worker field. Too often I hear well they are this denomination, so they do it wrong. If they follow Christ, then let them. We have many denominations because of our differences. Even Jesus ran into this issue in his time:

Mark 9:38-39

New International Version

Whoever Is Not Against Us Is for Us

³⁸ “Teacher,” said John, “we saw someone driving out demons in your name and we told him to stop, because he was not one of us.”

³⁹ “Do not stop him,” Jesus said. “For no one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me,

SO, love one another and Rejoyce in the differences. If they are following Christ let them, do it their way. Even if it is wrong to you. After all Jesus said love even your enemies so how much more should you love someone like you/

Matthew 5:43-48

New International Version

Love for Enemies

⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor^[a] and hate your enemy.’ ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶ If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that? ⁴⁷ And if you greet only your own people, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that? ⁴⁸ Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Loving everyone,

Chaplain Tony
