We were talking yesterday about keeping our eyes on the lord. The adversary tries so hard to get us to take our eyes off the lord. One way is very subtle. Printeries seem so innocent but in our mix of our day is things that allow us to take our eyes off the lord. Maybe a tv show or a clip on the phone. Maybe a game is the item. All alone these things are not bad but in moderation and if we forget to do the important things first then they become a snare in our eyes. I am a big believer in resting and relaxing but to an extent. We need to move our day to align with Gods plan.

Psalm 37:5

New International Version

⁵ Commit your way to the Lord;
trust in him and he will do this:

Commit our ways to Him, but when we encounter a fork in the road we sometimes forget to ask God which way to go. Trusting our own judgement and picking a path. We need to listen to His direction.

Isaiah 30:21

New International Version

²¹ Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, “This is the way; walk in it.”

This is the way, but we must listen to the voice because the adversary is the great deceiver and we need to make sure it is His voice we hear.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

New International Version

¹⁶ Rejoice always, ¹⁷ pray continually, ¹⁸ give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

ALWAYS IN PRAYER. When we are we know the voice of God and the adversary. We can tell them apart. Just like when we were young if someone came up to us and said dad said so we can discern if it is something he would say. Listen to the words.

Walking with Him,
