We all have a sin that we feel is just wrong. Something we see is bad and hurts God. We are partially right but all sins hurt God. He doesn't rank them least to worst. We as humans do the ranking. This happens daily a good example is the justice system. Yes, I agree you cannot treat theft the same as murder but it is still a sin. When we get up on our soap box and shout and hate on it we forget one thing.

Romans 3:23

New International Version

²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

Every one of us has done so. So, when you point our finger at the sinner, we have 4 fingers pointing back at us, also a sinner. Did we forget this? We have all sinned and fallen short, all of us. Luckey for me and you we are not the judge. I would not want that job. I can not see into each heart to see why they did this only Jesus can. Yet we try to judge.

Acts 10:42

New International Version

⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one whom God appointed as judge of the living and the dead.

This he that it is referring to is Jesus. This is His job not ours so why are we trying to take it? What gives us the right to do so? We don't have the right to do this as a matter of fact going back to our first verse tonight, look at the next verse after it:

Romans 3:23-24

New International Version

²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴ and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

The redemption is for Jesus we are save by the same judge that would condemn us. Not because he let us off the hook but because he already paid the price! Our sins as Christians are pain for.
