

2 Sept 2026

We were talking about what we need as humans. Nothing to be fixed, explained away or justified. Just to comfort. This goes double when someone dies. We must be there for them. Crying with them and supporting. No cliches or fancy words:

Job 30:23

New International Version

²³ I know you will bring me down to death,
to the place appointed for all the living.

This happens to all of us all living creatures. We need to realize that one day we will be there also. We need to remember the way we comfort is the way we want to be comforted. Nothing more, just the human touch.

Romans 14:8

New International Version

⁸ If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord.

Nothing different for anyone, all in His glory. We live and die in his glory in this lifetime. But it will not always be like this when we get to heaven it will be different.

Revelation 21:4

New International Version

⁴ ‘He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death’^[a] or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

The old order will pass away a new order is here. In the new heaven and earth. We will live in the house of the lord forever as believers. Loving and living with him.

Waiting for the day,

Chaplain Tony
