

28 Sept 2026

One of the joys I get in my job is when someone in the Bible study remembers the scriptures. Almost like a light going on as they remember their days in church. Whether it is a song or the Bible study. As you quote the scriptures and the light goes on. Today it was the following verse:

John 3:16 New International Version

<sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

The lights went on as they remembered the verse. Some even said it with me. It wasn't part of the study, just an example of what Jesus taught the disciples. We also sung a song they remembered Amazing Grace. Seeing the joy in these fellow Christians makes my day. Reminds me of a verse:

John 15:11 New International Version

<sup>11</sup> I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

I see Jesus. Joy being in them and allowing them to remember Jesus, His promises. The Bible is full of these promises but especially:

Philippians 3:20-21 New International Version

<sup>20</sup> But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>21</sup> who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.

John 11:25-26 New International Version

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; <sup>26</sup> and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?”
