

3 Sept 2026

When our loved ones start to lose their mental faculties, we get worried if they are still saved even if they cannot remember it? They spent all their life walking with God and now they can not remember the basics of salvation. Normally only the songs. Are they still in God's hands?

John 10:27-29

New International Version

²⁷ My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸ I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹ My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all^[a]; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand.

No one can snatch them out of My hands. Satan can not take them away in their moment of weakness. They are saved still. Even though temporally cannot worship him, they are still one of His. If they were not, then that would mean that we are the reason we are saved and this is not true.

Ephesians 2:8-9

New International Version

⁸ For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God— ⁹ not by works, so that no one can boast.

Saved by His grace through our faith when we can recall it and after this way no one can Boast. All His works not ours. Jesus did all the work for us to be saved. And to top it off the adversary can not do anything to take this away. Rejoyce in His works!

Romans 11:29

New International Version

²⁹ for God's gifts and his call are irrevocable.

His gifts are irrevocable. His works cannot be undone. Ours can and will but when Christ steps in for us this is forever, rejoice!

He loves us this much to save us,
